Good morning Ms. Chan,

I would like to let you know that I have sent out a meeting invitation via Outlook. Would you please check and confirm that Mr. Huetteman, Mr. Armann, and Mr. Scott have all received the invitation?

Thank you,

Myra

Hi Myra,

I apologize for responding late because we are moving our office and today is our packing day.

According to your suggested dates, November 18th works better for us. As of now, they are all available between 2:00 – 3:30 p.m.

Thanks for your patience.

Subject: Conference Call Request: DTSC/USEPA (on Riverside Ag Park)

Good morning Ms. Chan,

On behalf of the Department of Toxic Substances Control's Director Lee, I am contacting you to request a 45-minute conference call with the following individuals from US EPA: Mr. Jeff Scott, Mr. Steve Armann, and Mr. Tom Huetteman. I have also contacted you via telephone and have left a voicemail regarding this request.

The subject and details of this conference call are as follow:

Purpose of Meeting: Discuss the potential transfer of the Riverside Agricultural Park Project from DTSC to US EPA and the ramifications of the potential transfer

US EPA Attendee(s):

Jeff Scott
Steve Armann
Tom Huetteman

DTSC Attendee(s):

Barbara Lee, Director
Dot Lofstrom, Cleanup Program Branch Chief

CalEPA Attendee(s):

Grant Cope, Deputy Secretary
Arsenio Mataka, Assistant Secretary

Below is a list of suggested time for this conference call:

Friday, November 13—any time between 9:00 – 11:00 AM and any time between 3:30 – 5:00 PM

Wednesday, November 18—any time between 2:00 – 5:00 PM

I understand Mr. Scott may not be available on the suggested dates. Please let me know if Mr. Armann and Mr. Huetteman will be available for the conference call on the suggested dates. If none of the suggested dates and times are good, please kindly suggest additional dates and times.

Thank you,

Myra Yeung
